

Technology Standard III: Legal, Social and Ethical Issues Instructor's Guide for the Case Study

Use this chart to assist in identifying questionable or potentially problematic issues raised in the Case Study.

A questionable practice is identified by an 'X'. In some cases a questionable practice has more than one response. The phrase in ( ) adds further clarification.

Question 1	Question 2		Question 3		Question 4
Questionable Practices	Legal	Ethical	Health	Safety	Security	Privacy
1. ...loads copy of atlas software with single-user license on 22 computers	X (Copyright)	X
2. Students downloading information from the Internet without citing source or getting permission	X (Copyright)	X			X
3. Students sit where they choose, arguing over seats				X	X
4. Assigned girl to take notes		X (Equity)
5. Freely copy graphics and text from the Internet without citing source or getting permission	X (Copyright)	X (Teacher modeling inappropriate practice)			X
6. Complete assignments at home		X (Equity)			X
7. Freely search the Internet for sites on their country		X (Free access to web w/o directions, e.g., bookmarks)		X
8. Mrs. Jones left her grade book open		X				X
9. Students reciting scores aloud		X				X
10. ...glare on the monitor			X
11. Teacher doing hall duty while students rush into class to access commercial Internet web site		X		X	X
12. ...without logging out		X			X	X
13. Rushing out and backpack hooking the monitor				X
14. Student catching the monitor				X
15. Locate workstation for wheelchair-bound student	X		X	X	X
16. Begun work at home and opens disk in class w/o virus scan		X			X
17. New student is instructed to get on the Internet...	X	X			X
18. ...complete assignment for homework		X (Equity)			X	X
19. Other clearly and plausible issues. List:						